FORMS ON LINE, COURTESY OF AUDITOR'S OFFICE

You may appeal the appraised value of your vehicle because of high mileage if the vehicle averages more than 15,000 miles annually based on the age of the vehicle. The appeal can only be requested during your renewal period right after you receive the notice but before the end of the month that your taxes are due on the vehicle. You the owner are responsible for knowing your vehicle expiration date in the event you do not receive a tax notice. If you wish to appeal, please fill in the following form and email, fax, or mail to us. Please allow a 24-hour response time (excluding weekends & holidays) for a reply. If amended, the office will send you an amended tax notice. Your request may also be denied. The auditor's office will respond in kind by email, fax, or mail and hopes that this electronic form provides a service for you. Any questions, call the auditor's office, 843-545-3021.
