17. Time will not permit the Tax Collector or staff to answer questions regarding the above information for the duration of the tax sale.

Generally speaking. When a bidder bids at tax sale in Georgetown, S.C., one of two things occurs:

1. The taxpayer redeems the property from the tax collector within the one-year redemption period and the bidder is refunded as provided by law.
2. The taxpayer fails to redeem the property within the one-year redemption period. The bidder is issued a tax title to the property.

All information contained herein is general in nature, and is not all-inclusive.
